PERFORMANCE

A small performance will be offered on Friday, August 1st to showcase what the students learned.

HOW TO PREPARE FOR CLASS

- Please arrive 10 minutes early for class. Dancers will need to line up 5 minutes prior to class.
- Have a water bottle handy. Water bottles that can be closed are allowed.
- There will be cubbies available for students to store their belongings. Only items that are necessary for class should be brought in.
- Please follow the dress code as outlined below and review the school policies.

SCHOOL POLICIES & GUIDELINES

- Students should arrive 15 minutes prior to the start of his or her class. Students who are late must respectfully and quietly wait for permission from the teacher in order to enter the class.
- Students and parents should always be aware of the integrity and standard by which BalletCNJ operates. We strongly discourage the use of foul language and behavior on the premises. All students, parents, and visitors should be respectful to one another and help to create a positive environment.
- For any issues that may arise concerning students, parents, and teachers, BalletCNJ will be happy to set up a meeting in order to address a situation, create an understanding, and reach a suitable resolution. Specific conversations and conflicts should be addressed with the Directors/Teachers in a private matter and setting. BalletCNJ respects the privacy of all our students.
- BalletCNJ is not responsible for any lost or stolen items, however if an item is found it will be placed in a Lost and Found section or at the front desk for safe keeping.
- If inclement weather or any other circumstances should affect our regular class times and schedule, parents and students will be notified immediately of any changes. BalletCNJ will most likely follow the Hamilton Twp. Protocol on severe weather. Please check for email and/or website notifications.
- Gum, mobile devices, food, and beverages will not be allowed in the studios at any time. Closed water bottles are permitted.
- Students and parents may be suspended from classes or asked to leave the facility if they do not abide by the rules and/or display disrespectful behavior that jeopardizes the positive environment or other clientele.
- There are no deductions, refunds, or credits for missed classes. All payments are final. Please contact the front desk for further questions
- In the case of returned check or insufficient funds, BalletCNJ will charge a fee of $35.00
- School of Ballet Central New Jersey is not responsible for any person or student who may be injured in class or on the studio premises
- Any student enrolled or participating in any activity at the School of Ballet Central New Jersey acknowledges they are in good physical condition and are able to perform activities within the enrolled class or intensive. Any medical conditions must be made known prior to the start of class enrollment and are at the student's own risk.
- The Party or individual responsible for the student participating is advised to provide medical insurance for the student or participant and will not hold the School of Ballet Central New Jersey and its agents, guests or employees liable in the event of any accident, injury or claim.
- In case of an emergency, and the emergency contact is not reachable, BalletCNJ will obtain emergency medical treatment or render aid for any injury that may occur while attending classes at the School of Ballet Central New Jersey or any related activities.

BalletCNJ's dress code is designed to create a positive learning atmosphere in our school and allows our instructors to check the students for proper body alignment and execution of dance steps. However, BalletCNJ's dress code provides many other important benefits to our students.

By following our dress code:

- Students learn the importance of a presentable appearance which is a lesson that can positively impact their self-respect and self-esteem.
- Visual distractions are eliminated to allow students to concentrate more on their activities, which makes learning more interesting and relevant, leading to higher student achievements.
- The burden on parents is reduced by saving time and money when shopping for dance clothes.
- Positivity in class increases as students can be more creative when they are not anxious about what other students are wearing.
- You will be helping BalletCNJ encourage equality among all our students regardless of different factors that may influence them in everyday life outside our school.
- It promotes a sense of community and belonging, which creates a positive environment for making new friends.
- Students will learn lessons that will help them in other aspects throughout their lives as they develop a sense of discipline and good behavior.

BalletCNJ's dress code promotes the wellbeing of every student and teaches them appreciation and respect for our beautiful art form. Please review the dress code below.
